

CHAPTER

22

VOCABULARY REVIEW WORKSHEET

A Connective Crossword

Give this crossword puzzle a try after you finish reading Chapter 22!

Solve the clues below, and write the answers in the appropriate spaces in the crossword puzzle.

ACROSS

3. _____ is the type of bone tissue that gives a bone its strength. (two words)
8. place where two or more bones connect
10. small organs that produce a salty liquid that flows to the surface of the skin (two words)
11. _____ is the type of bone tissue that contains marrow. (two words)
17. Your _____ is made up of your skin, hair, and nails. (two words)
21. strong elastic bands of connective tissue that keep joints together
22. small organs in the dermis that produce hair (two words)
23. a group of similar cells working together
24. _____ is the type of tissue made of cells that contract and relax to produce movement. (two words)
25. _____ tissue sends electrical signals through the body.

DOWN

1. two or more tissues working together
2. soft, flexible tissue that is found in the tip of your nose
3. _____ is the type of tissue that joins, supports, protects, insulates, and cushions organs. (two words)
4. the thin, outermost layer of skin
5. a muscle that straightens a body part
6. maintenance of a stable internal environment
7. strands of tough connective tissue that connect skeletal muscles to bones
9. _____ is found in the digestive tract and blood vessels. (two words)
12. _____ is the type of tissue that covers and protects underlying tissue. (two words)
13. a muscle that bends a body part
14. _____ muscle is found only in the heart.
15. thick layer of skin found under item 4 down
16. a collection of organs whose primary function is movement (two words)
18. _____ are muscles that move bones. (two words)
19. made up of bones, cartilage, and the special structures that connect them (two words)
20. a darkening chemical in skin that determines skin color

A Connective Crossword, continued

Copyright © by Holt, Rinehart and Winston. All rights reserved.